The Busy Bee Winnies April Meeting was at the Manor in Mason City, IA. hosted by Cheryl Cooper on April 8th. Attending were 12 members, 4 honorary members and 6 guests. It was a luncheon where Cheryl served tender roast beef, mashed potatoes, gravy, her special vegetable medley and deviled eggs, fresh bread and butter, coffee and iced tea. The members brought a variety of salads and desserts and more deviled eggs.

Before the Business Meeting Cooper took members up to the eighth floor to see her newly remodeled apartment.

President Hustad told us about the Show and Tell event at U.S. Adventures in Davenport on April 22nd from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. to help promote the Iowa Winnie Hawks and local clubs. Bob and Carol Hustad and Ken Pitt will be attending this. Anyone that would like to attend is welcome. Please let Carol know 319-270-7352 if you are able to participate. Bob and Carol will be camping at Scott County Park 18850 270th St. Eldridge, IA. 52748 for $15 per night. For reservations call 563-328-3282. Thanks to Carol and Bob for getting this planned. Participating in these type of events helps toward achieving our Chapter of Excellent Award.

WIT members Dean and Mardine Meyer, Kensett, IA. joined the Busy Bees. Their email: dmmeyer2121@yahoo.com.

Bonnie Loomis announced that the Glenn Miller Orchestra would be performing a free concert at Wilder Park at Allison IA. on June 11 from 6:30-8:30 p.m.

Lyle Airey said Terry Keeper, 71, of Scarville, formerly Forest City passed away March 12, 2017. He worked for 38 years in the maintenance Department & customer Service at Winnebago in Forest City.

Thank you to Cheryl Cooper for hosting the Busy Bee Winnies and for the delicious meal.
